

CAMPUS CORNER

Regional research methodology course ends

Guests and participants pose for a photograph at the concluding ceremony of a ten-day course on research methodology on EWU campus at Aftabnagar on Thursday. PHOTO: COURTESY

A ten-day course on research methodology organised by SAARC Documentation Centre (SDC) New Delhi, India in collaboration with East West University (EWU) ended on university campus at Aftabnagar, Dhaka on Thursday, says a press release.

State Minister for Finance and Planning MA Mannan was the chief guest at the concluding ceremony. A total of 26 participants from eight SAARC countries attended the programme. This course was meant for researchers, faculty members, MPhil and PhD students.

Certificates were distributed among the participating researchers at the end of the ten-day course.

Mohammed Farashuddin, chairperson, Board of Trustees, EWU, chaired the programme, while Ahmed Shafee, vice chancellor of EWU, and Kesang Dechen, deputy director of SAARC Documentation Centre, were the special guests.