

Actuarial science seminar held at EWU

A seminar on actuarial science was held at the East West University (EWU) at Aftabnagar in the capital on Tuesday, says a press release.

The seminar was organised by the Department of Applied Statistics, EWU on the eve of initiation of a postgraduate diploma in Actuarial Science programme

M Shefaque Ahmed, actuary, chairman, Insurance Development and Regulatory Authority, was the chief guest. Sohrab Uddin, actuary, chairman, Sadharan Bima Corporation and Ahmed Shafee, vice-chancellor, EWU, were the special guests in the seminar.

Mohammed Farashuddin, chairperson, Board of Trustees of the EWU and former Governor of Bangladesh Bank, chaired the seminar. The course curriculum was presented by M Ataharul Islam, chairperson, Department of Applied Statistics, and M Mosleh-Uddin, member of the Board of Trustees and the Programme Advisor of the Department of Applied Statistics, EWU conducted the open discussion in the seminar.

M Shefaque Ahmed, chairman, Insurance Development and Regulatory Authority, speaks at a seminar on actuarial science at the East West University at Aftabnagar in the capital on Tuesday.

PHOTO: COURTESY

Meanwhile, a postgraduate diploma in the actuarial science programme will start at the Department of Applied Statistics of EWU, from September, 2015. This is going to be the first such a program to be offered by any university in Bangladesh.