

EWU Organises inter-university capital market investment competition

Professor Shibli Rubayat-Ul-Islam, chairman of the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission, attends a prize-giving ceremony organised by East-West University in the capital recently. PHOTO: COURTESY

Daily Sun Report, Dhaka

The Investment and Finance Club of East-West University (EWU) organised the first "NeXTor" (Next Investor) 2024 Inter-University Capital Market Investment Competition.

Some 732 students from 244 teams representing 22 universities across the country participated in the three-month long completion.

The competition included five workshops and four rounds. It provided an opportunity for students to learn about investment knowledge, strategic investment skills, and stock market trading mechanisms, said a press release.

It ended with a closing and prize-giving ceremony on 5 May 2024 at the 'Manzur Elahi' Auditorium in EWU.

Seven finalist teams from the Dhaka University, Bangladesh University of Professionals, Institute of Business Administration (IBA), BRAC University, North South University, and East West University presented their portfolios to the judges to be selected as winners.

Team Dhaka University emerged as the champions, followed by Team Bangladesh University of Professionals and Team North South University as the first and second runners-up, respectively.