

East West University holds Agro Biz Expo

The Agro Industrialization Club of East West University (EWU) hosted its Sixth Annual Agro Biz Expo on the EWU on Sunday and Monday.

This two-day event provided an excellent opportunity for industry professionals, suppliers, manufacturers, and young entrepreneurs to showcase their products, services, and innovations, thereby fostering collaboration and driving forward the agricultural landscape, according to a press release.

The Expo, featuring 22 stalls, was a comprehensive display of the latest advancements and offerings in agriculture. Attendees had the opportunity to explore a diverse array of exhibits highlighting the multifaceted nature of the industry, from cutting-edge technologies to sustainable practices.

Chief Adviser of EWU Professor Dr Mohammed Farashuddin, also former governor of Bangladesh Bank, inaugurated the Expo, underscoring the university's commitment to promoting innovation and entrepreneurship in agriculture.

Esteemed guests – including Professor Dr M Ashik Mosaddik, Pro-Vice Chancellor; Air Cdre (Retd) Ishfaq Ilahi Choudhury, Treasurer; and Agro Biz Club moderators Estiaque Bari and Md Helal Uddin – were also present at the inauguration ceremony.
