Message

It is indeed a great pleasure to learn that East West University is holding its eleventh convocation. I feel honoured to be a part of this program as the Convocation Speaker. On this auspicious occasion let me extend my heartfelt congratulations to the graduating students, their proud parents, the dedicated faculty, and the administration of East West University.

I earnestly hope that today's young graduates of East West University will now dedicate themselves to the future. I hope too that whatever knowledge and skills they have amassed at East West University will stand them in good stead in the years to come and that they will be able to use all that they have learned in the university not only for their own advancement but for the advancement of the nation.

I wish this convocation every success and extend my best wishes to the graduates, their families and friends, the faculty, and to everyone present here on this happy occasion.

Abdullah Abu Sayeed
