

President calls for ensuring global standard education

President M Zillur Rahman Monday called upon the private universities to ensure world standard higher education to the students.

The President, also the chancellor of most of the universities, laid emphasis on expanding the universities' scholarship facilities for the poor but meritorious students, reports BSS.

The President made the remarks when a delegation of East West University (EWU) led by its vice chancellor Dr Mohammad Farasuddin called on him at Bangabhaban.

During the meeting, the EWU delegation apprised the President of the development activities of the university.

The President appreciated the EWU authorities as they built the university's permanent campus in an area measuring 0.45 million square feet at Aftabnagar in the capital.

The EWU delegation also included Prof Ahmed Shafi, Jalaluddin Ahmed, Dr Rafiqul Huda Chowdhury, Prof Dr M Mosleuddin, MA Momin, HN Ashiqur Rahman, MP, and M Rajia Samad.
