

CAMPUS CORNER

EWU observes World Environment Day

The East West University Environmental and Social Club observed World Environment Day 2014 through various programmes yesterday, says a press release. The programmes included a cycle procession, tree plantation, art competition for underprivileged children, and quiz competition for students. Dr Mohammed Farashuddin, chairperson,

Board of Trustees, EWU and former governor of Bangladesh Bank, Prof Ahmed Shafee, vice chancellor, EWU, Prof Dr M Sekander Hayat Khan, pro-vice chancellor, inaugurated the tree plantation programme. They planted saplings on the road divider at Aftab Nagar in the capital. As a part of the programme, members of the club brought out a cycle procession in the Hatirjeel area to promote a healthy lifestyle and environment friendly transport system in Dhaka. Air Comrade Ishfaq Ilahi Choudhury (rtd), registrar, EWU, Nahid Hasan Khan, adviser, Student Welfare, faculty members, club members, staffs and students participated in these events.

Dr Mohammed Farashuddin, chairperson, Board of Trustees, EWU, plants a sapling on the road divider at Aftab Nagar in the capital yesterday marking the World Environment Day 2014.

PHOTO: COURTESY